

Learning through the stages of the COVID-19 crisis

19 June 2020

Voluntary Action
South Lanarkshire
Putting the Voluntary Sector FIRST

House Keeping

- To support feedback the sessions are being recorded
- Please keep your microphone muted when not talking
- Raise your hand or use chat when you want to ask a question

Agenda

- Introduction
Nancy Barr - VASLan Chair
- Breakout Room Discussion
 - The Third Sector's capacity to deliver
 - Funding - current and future
 - Impact of South Lanarkshire's Third Sector
- Group Discussions Feedback
- Next Steps

Nancy Barr

Chair VASLan

The positive approach the sector has taken to supporting local communities

Crisis Response

The Swift Initial Reaction across
South
Lanarkshire

Adaptation of Service Delivery

New and Local Community
Responses

Transition

Capturing learning about what went well & what didn't go so well

Testing actions, learning and
adapting

Understanding
our Potential

Transition → Recovery

Capturing how our systems responded in the crisis

Learning to support adaptation and transitioning to new normal

Delivering our Potential

Group Discussions

The Third Sector's Ability To Deliver
Funding - current and future

The Impact of South Lanarkshire's Third Sector

Group Discussion

Session 1

Third Sector's Ability to Deliver

Collaborative and coordinated working

A more flexible approach to delivery

Communications and Agreed protocols between the sector and partner agencies

What have we learned?

Group Discussion

Session 2

Funding – current and future

Communications, access and process around COVID related funding

The impact and effects of COVID on your financial position and future

What went well what has the access to additional funding meant for you?

Group Discussion

Session 3

Impact of South Lanarkshire's Third Sector

The successes and highlighting the impact Availability, deployment and support of Volunteers
What went well?

Group Feedback

What are the next Steps

Thank You

Voluntary Action
South Lanarkshire
Putting the Voluntary Sector FIRST